

Accreditation Performance Statement

From 1st July 2007, the ACHS Terms and Conditions includes the introduction of a policy regarding compulsory public disclosure of an individual organisation's accreditation results.

The ACHS strongly believes in the public availability of appropriate information resulting from accreditation surveys, and is actively encouraging all members to make this information available to interested parties, most notably consumers.

Name of member organisation:	Mugga Wara & Brindabella Endoscopy Centres

Organisation's Comments

Mugga Wara and Brindabella Endoscopy Centres have been assessed by the Australian Council on Healthcare Standards who found a clear commitment to the provision of high quality care and service to the community.

An established infection control system supports safe practice and a safe environment.

Mugga Wara and Brindabella Endoscopy Centres provide services that are planned, delivered and evaluated by committed management and appropriately qualified staff.

The range of clinical research and publication activities which are undertaken by medical and nursing staff, was awarded a standard of excellence by the Australian Council on Health Care Standards in July 2010.

The organisation has a good risk management framework.

Survey Coordinator Comments

The survey team was impressed by the strong clinical quality and safety focus of the two Centres. There was ongoing work to incorporate the new proprietors of the Brindabella Endoscopy Centre and to gain from the opportunities that now presented for constructive benchmarking activities. The involvement in applied clinical medical and nursing research is applauded.
